SAN JUAN DAY PICNIC
Denver & Rio Grande Ry. Making Elaborate Preparations For the Comfort of the Passengers.

Indian Sports and Superb Scenic Attractions Will Induce a Large Number of People to Participate in the Celebration.
The picnic excursion of the D. & R. G. Ry. to San Juan, San Juan day, June 24, will be one of the best patronized events of the summer season. It is estimated that fully 200 people will take this trip.
San Juan is an ideal spot for a day's outing, offering to the lover of nature superb scenes of pastoral quietude, embracing wooded slopes, pellucid meadows, beautiful lawns and rippling streams of water. An abundance of fruit and flowers color the locality and scent the breezes with their fragrance. Hon. Sam Eldred's pretty garden will be thrown open to the visitors and his oft praised hospitality will be extended in every possible way.
General Agent T. J. Helm will accompany the party and personally look to the comfort and enjoyment of all. The occasion is the annual feast of the Indian pueblo, and Indian races, games and sports of equal character will amuse the tourist and lover of sport.
These excursions have previously been conducted under the auspices of the W. B. T. of this city. Last year the affair netted the organization $70. A great many people look forward with pleasure to this annual picnic and the attendance has reached 700 people in previous years.
Trains will leave Santa Fe at 8 o'clock a. m., and returning will leave Chamita at 4 p. m., arriving home at 7 p. m. Fare for the round trip $1.25. Children, 75 cents.

READY TO VOLUNTEER.

Twenty-five Men in Santa Fe For Enlistment—Ladies Soldiers Aid Society Doing Good Work.
It has been announced that Captain C. L. Cooper, 10th U. S. cavalry, would begin the work of examining and enlisting the 75 additional men for the 1st U. S. volunteer cavalry this morning, but the necessary blanks and papers from the War department failed to arrive, and nothing can be done until they are received. Twenty-five men are in the city quartered at the barracks, ready to enlist. They are:
From Albuquerque: F. M. Donovan, in charge; J. W. Bullard, W. Burris, Jas. Giesler, J. C. McDowell, A. F. Anderson, D. Richards, Otto W. Nesbitt, L. C. Rice, Eugene Schupp, R. B. Moore and H. Pierce.
From Las Vegas: W. C. Andrews, Alfred Conover, Fred W. Dunkle, Ernest A. Barber, James P. Gibbs, Lee Holtzman, Chas. Jacobus, Geo. Thompson, John M. Brennan, Ben S. Sawyer, Wm. R. Gibbs. Captain W. C. Reid, of the signal corps, is in charge of the Las Vegas squad.
From Raton, C. M. Townsend. From Springer, E. C. Conley.
Since no provision has been made by the government to care for the men while in Santa Fe before they are mustered in the Ladies Soldiers Aid society of this city is arranging to furnish meals and otherwise to look after their needs. Detachments from other parts of the territory are expected to arrive tomorrow and next days.
